The certificate of attendance for the course in question will be issued only to those who have participated and completed the lesson hours of the course days.

The course will start strictly at 10.00 in the morning and will end at approximately 6.00pm. It is required to be present at 9.30am (8.30am to register on the first day) to be able to choose the Equilibrium before the course starts. On the last day it is not possible for any reason to leave the course early; if this happens, the certificate of participation in the course will not be issued.

Out of respect for the participants and those who hold and organize the course, it is necessary to plan to be punctual: anyone arriving late will not be able to access the room until the end of the meditation and will necessarily have to sit at the end of the room so as not to disturb.

The organizer has no responsibility in the event of damage and/or theft or loss to people and/or things during the event, the trip and/or the stay.

In the event that there is serious incorrect and/or harmful behavior towards people or the event itself, the organization has the right to ask the participant to leave and decide to terminate participation in the event and without the latter having to request your participation fee. In the event of the participant abandoning the course due to force majeure, there will be no refund.

The course has a limited number of places and participation will only be confirmed for those who make payment in the ways indicated in the two options above. It is not possible to hold places on stand-by or make partial payments.

Please send us by email to info@chalicewell.it the payment confirmation for both the deposit and the balance, together with the form completed in full and signed.
